2. Services

All services are provided on an "As-Is" basis. Services described on the CareerHub websites are only available in the United States. You agree to use the CareerHub Services in accordance with all applicable guidelines as well as all applicable state and federal laws.

The Services consist of one or more of the following: a web-based interface, access to a dedicated local ten digit out-going telephone number, messaging applications, voice broadcast applications, SMS and MMS gateway access, data encryption, data transmission, data access, data storage as well as software maintenance and upgrades and customer support, that enable you to send and receive SMS messages, MMS messages and/or text to speech voice telephone broadcasts to recipients designated by you (collectively, the "Services"). We transmit messages initiated by you or sent to you by others through different routes, and the level of reliability and support for special features varies according to the route. You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining all computer hardware, software, and communications equipment needed to access and use the Services, and for paying all access charges (e.g., ISP, telecommunications) incurred while using the Services.

CareerHub also provides electronic Gift Cards, called "eBoosts," which may be selected or purchased on the Website. When you have completed and paid for your order, CareerHub will produce a balance and an opportunity to select and send an electronic Gift Card to the recipients specified by you. The pricing for electronic Gift Cards is stated in U.S. dollars. Your balance for electronic Gift Cards is deducted when electronic Gift Cards are sent to recipients. Once electronic Gift Cards are sent to a recipient they are non-refundable. Electronic gift cards never expire. The Customer is responsible for selecting the vendor for the eBoost and is non-transferable once sent to the recipient. CareerHub reserves the right to add or remove vendor options from the menu of electronic Gift Card choices.

CareerHub only provides that the Services are processed correctly and further transmitted by CareerHub to the applicable downstream network. CareerHub is not responsible for the final delivery of any communication initiated by you through the Services, as this is out of our control and is the responsibility of downstream communications carriers.

CareerHub transmits and receives voice, SMS, and MMS messages via other major telecommunications companies and mobile network operators, and thus CareerHub is limited by the constraints third-party communications carrier. CareerHub does not control the timing of the transmission of your messages. While CareerHub shall use commercially reasonable efforts to transmit your messages and broadcasts to the applicable network for final delivery to your designated recipients as fast as possible, however, we cannot commit to, and do not guarantee, a specific maximum delivery time. Such times depend on various network and system-related factors among the various entities involved in the transmission of your messages across the public switched telephone network and/or Internet. You should know that communications carriers assign messages with a default lifetime, and any message that cannot be delivered successfully within the lifetime assigned to it will be discarded by the communications carrier without any notice. CareerHub does not and cannot guarantee that any message will be delivered by any third-party communications carrier, and therefore you agree that CareerHub is not liable for any loss resulting from the failure of a message to be delivered, including consequential damages (whether foreseeable or not). Furthermore, you agree that message contents are deemed to have zero dollar value.

4. Fees

Your use of the Services is contingent on your paying your monthly or annual subscription fees, in the amounts agreed upon and using the methods indicated on the CareerHub Website. Your payment for the Services and electronic Gift Card credits shall be deemed completed when CareerHub receives the full amount of payment owed for such Services and Credits. You are responsible to pay for any message or broadcast you attempt to send to any number, regardless of whether the message is actually received by the intended recipient. As CareerHub is dependent on other entities for the delivery of your messages and broadcasts, our price per credit may require adjustment in order to account for costs that are not in our control. Accordingly, we may adjust our prices from time to time without prior notice. If your account is closed due to non-payment, CareerHub will store your data for one year from the date of closure and you will continue to have access to the record of communication transmissions.

CareerHub will charge your indicated method of payment for the Services, Credits, and/or plans immediately upon your confirming the payment method and amount. Amounts to be charged may include sales and other taxes where applicable and any other amounts indicated on the Website. Your account will be credited within 24 hours of CareerHub verifying receipt of your payment. If you have elected to make a payment by credit card and we do not receive payment from the credit card issuer, you agree to pay all amounts due immediately upon demand by CareerHub. If you elect to pay for Services via a check, Services will not be rendered until payment has been cleared.

CareerHub cannot readily or accurately ascertain your location when you request to use the Services. You therefore agree that your use of the Services occurs in California and is subject to any applicable California taxes. To the extent that you are responsible for any additional taxes or fees beyond those collected by CareerHub you agree that you will pay them when due to any applicable taxing authority, including any interest or penalties assessed.

CareerHub shall not be responsible for any errors or transmission failures with regard to the charging and collection of funds from your indicated payment method, nor for any actions taken by the provider of the payment method you choose (which could include refusal to authorize the charge). In addition to these Terms, any payments made by you may be subject to the agreement between you and the provider of the payment method.

As between you and CareerHub, you are responsible for all charges related to purchases made using your account and payment method, whether or not you authorized such purchases. Standard charges apply to any test calls sent originating from your account. In the event of accidental under-billing in your favor or in the event of a non-payment under these Terms, CareerHub shall be entitled to immediately proceed with collection remedies and shall be entitled to recover any and all costs, fees, and expenses of such collection efforts, including but not limited to: collection agencies, court costs, filing and service of process fees, attorneys' fees incurred from counsel of CareerHub's choosing, or any other costs, fees, and expenses incurred in the pursuit of collection on all customer accounts and receivables due and payable under these Terms.

Users who receive a coupon code for a 30-day trial will have access to the basic plan for 30 days free of charge. If users choose to continue their service after the 30-day trial they may start a plan using check, purchase order or credit card. Users of the 30-day trial account do not have access to eBoosts. User accounts will be stored and archived for up to one year.

CareerHub is purchased through a monthly or annual subscription plan. A month constitutes one billing cycle. Any texts, emails or voice calls not used within the month of purchase, expire at the end of the month. CareerHub may, in its sole discretion, offer customized plans that provide for individualized terms concerning credit expiration, billing cycles, account maintenance fees and/or other agreed upon terms. The terms of such customized plans will be documented in our written contractual agreement with you. Your billing cycle will start on the first day of payment receipt and will repeat on the same day of each month until you cancel your subscription.
